BODY BUILDER

Maybe it's a truck body. Maybe a racing car body. But whatever model you're building, you want it to look the best. That means putting in a ton of care and concentration. And paying particular attention to the details.

And when it comes to details, no one out-muscles MPC. Details are MPC's strength. You see, at MPC special effort is given to insure that every car or truck is 100% authentic.

Whether it's an old model or a new one. A Classic Muscle Car or any of the newest '87 American High Performance Cars, MPC's got a model kit you can wrestle with.

So if it's a great body you want to show off, get an MPC Model Kit.

Just like the real thing. Only smaller.

SID JACOBSON: EDITOR

A.A. PERRY: ASSISTANT EDITOR

c/o S.T.A.R. COMICS, 387 PARK AVE. SOUTH, N.Y.C., N.Y. 10016

Dear Freddy and Dino,

I liked your rescue of the Simple Simon Diamond [as seen in "Double Trouble"], plus the "Kind of a Drag Race" in issue #4.

Could you have "The Return of the Pink Pterodactyl"?

Tony Cowles
Lockington, Victoria
Australia

P.S. I loved the autographed picture, thanks!

Thank you, Tony! We're glad to hear from you.

As for your suggestion, we'd like to help you out. But when did "The Pink Pterodactyl" ever show up for the first time?

Dear FLINTSTONE KIDS,

I just finished reading the FLINTSTONE KIDS #6. I thought it was a good comic!

I especially liked the story "It Ain't Ness-essarily So!" I liked it when Freddy, Barney, and Philo played a trick on Rocky Ratrock and they built a raft to fool Rocky. The guy from the newspaper got mad and said, "Hold still, kid! My new front page story will read 'Bedrock boy is bona fide bonehead!'" The end was good, too, when Freddy said that Mother Nature has her own way of thanking you! It was cute!

By the way, what issue will the letters be in? And can you send me an autographed picture of the Flintstone Kids?

Michelle Michau
No Address Given

As we recall, there was an autographed picture in that same issue, in the letters column! Take a look, Michelle--it's yet another reason to enjoy the issue.

In any case, we're glad you liked the story, and glad you took time to write. Guess you must be a bona fide fan!

Dear FLINTSTONE KIDS,

I have written before, but I love your comic! It is my favorite. PLEASE make it monthly. It would be nice to get it every month. I have seen other letters asking for it to be made monthly, and I am sure there are more not even printed. So, please, I beg of you, make it monthly. I hope it will never be canceled.

Also, I hope you'll make a second comic of ALF.

Brennan Booth
Charlotte, TX

P.S. I missed issue #3 when I got my subscription. I know you cannot send it to me (probably), and I've looked in comic stores and mail order departments, and still haven't found it. Please suggest a way of getting it.

Nice to hear from you again,
Brennan.

You say you've tried comic stores, and mail order companies. Unfortunately, there aren't a whole lot of other pieces to go, to look for back issues--unless you try different comic stores and mail order companies. Some may have ordered more or less copies of the issue you want, and it will just take a good search to find #3.

You might also want to check out a comics convention, if one is held in your area. Comics dealers from many different places usually sell hard-to-find comics at conventions, and even if they don't carry what you want, chances are good they'll have suggestions on where you can look. And, even if you don't find FLINTSTONE KIDS #3, we'll bet you have a good time browsing through all the other comics on sale. (You might even find an ALF you haven't read yet!)

Dear FLINTSTONE KIDS,

I think your comic is fantastic! "Vote of Confidence," in issue #8, was especially good because I started to feel sorry for Dreamchip. I never thought anyone could be richer than she is. Too bad she's still a snob.

Do you think an alien could ever crash through Freddy's roof? I only ask because ALF is my other favorite comic, and I'd really like Freddy and Alf to meet.

Maria Potter
Providence, RI

Greet minds must think alike, Marie--you and Brennan are definitely on the same wavelength!

Sorry to say, however, we have no current plans to team up ALF with our favorite gang, but it is a good idea.

If you're not getting the recommended daily dosage (i.e., LOTS!) of Alf, though, we can suggest you take a look at some of the special, new, super-sized ALF issues from STAR! The ALF ANNUAL came out earlier this year, and if you are very nice to your comics dealer, s/he may still have one left for you. Or, you can wait till November--that's when the next special 64-page holiday issue of ALF will be on sale!

Any of that help?

Dear FLINTSTONE KIDS,

What kind of dinosaur is Dino? He is so cute. I wish I had a pet just like him. What are those things on his head?

Also, I really like Wilma. She's so smart and nice. No wonder Freddy likes her.

Lynn Whiting
New York, NY

Those "things" on Dino's head are the identifying characteristic of a true, blue-blooded, purebred Snorkosaurus, very rare nowadays. Snorkoseurs do not get along very well with cats (especially the sabre-toothed variety), so keep that in mind if you decide to ask for one at the pet store.

Dear FLINTSTONE KIDS,

You guys are the greatest! I don't know how you keep coming up with such good ideas.

I have a few suggestions. I'd really like to see more of Philo and the Bedrock P.I.'s. I like to see them solve mysteries, and, especially, to outwit that bully Rocky Ratrock! Also, I've been watching the Flintstone TV show, and I'd like to know if Fred's boss Mr. Slate ever was a kid? How did Freddy start working for him?

Mary Gentry
San Francisco, CA

Let's see... how do we get our ideas? Hmm. Well, it's hard to say, but things just sort of come to us now and then... Like this great idea we just had about adding a few more stories about the Bedrock P.I.'s to the comic. Or writing a story about Nate Slate as a kid...

Gee, how do these things occur to us?
